DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

Claims 12 and 28 are rejected under 35 USC 101 because the claim falls under a judicial exception without tangible result claimed. The mere claiming of the steps of determining, calculating and setting the charge rate would not appear to be sufficient to constitute a tangible result since they are mathematical steps of correlating the data which have not made available in such a manner that its usefulness in a disclosed practical application can be realized.

These claims are different than claims 1 and 17 because these claims actually claiming the step of actual charging the battery based on the claimed steps of calculations.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 5, 7, 17, 21, 23, 33 and 34 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 1/25/07 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive in part.

Art Unit: 2838

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
